We were shown this morning a very beautiful gold cross, bearing the follow-ing inscription: "Louis Wilkerson, from A. E. Frankland, as a memento, for her attention to the sick and poor during the Yellow Fever Epidemic, Memphis, Tenn., 1873." We are pleased to learn that this young lady is convalescent, and we know she is well worthy of the handsome present. Why Marriages Decrease.

The falling off in marriages is found pute the Appeal's assertion of cirin the centers of population, where the needs of life press hard. The old-fashioned disinterestedness has of late years been losing ground in these places. Thirty or forty years ago it was plain sailing; a gibbous hat and the Italian opera were unknown; all worked for a mation begins to beam in almost every with those of to-day.
